Human Relations LPC Workshops
and Professional Development Series

LPC Pre-Test Workshops

We are pleased to announce that the Department of Human Relations will be offering workshops that will assist prospective LPC professionals. These workshops are aimed at preparation and success in passing the state and national exams.

We will launch our first LPC Test Prep Workshop on November 11, 2017. This first workshop will cover the Oklahoma Legal and Ethical Responsibilities Exam (OLERE) and the second workshop will serve as an introduction and overview of the National Counselor Exam (NCE).

The Department of Human Relations will also be offering workshops that will cover the following content areas which are specific to the LPC exam. They will focus on the following:

- Human Growth and Development
- Social and Cultural Foundations
- Helping Relationships
- Groups
- Lifestyle and Career Development
- Appraisal
- Research and Program Evaluation
- Professional Orientation

These content areas will be held in 3-hour workshops in morning and afternoon sessions. They will be held Saturdays from 9:00 am to 12:00 noon and from 1:30 pm to 4:30 pm. The entire series will be repeated each Fall and Spring semester. Each 3-hour workshop will be offered at a cost of $50 per workshop.

The entire content area workshops will be repeated each Fall and Spring semester. The OLERE and the NCE workshops will be offered the Fall, Spring, and Summer semesters.

The Spring and Summer 2018 workshop dates will be announced soon. Please check with us periodically for updates.

Professional Development Series

We are also pleased to announce that that we will be offering Continuing Education Units (CEUs) on topics of interest to practicing LPC clinicians, counselors, and supervisors to help them continue in their professional development.

This Professional Development series will start in the Spring 2018 semester. Please check with us periodically for updates.
